

Sketchy

Drawing Art Show

Sketchy: Drawing Art Show

Are you sketchy? As in, someone who likes to draw? Apply today for Word Revolt Art Gallery's exhibition all about drawing. Artists working in any sort of scratchy, inky or crumbly media that can render a line are encouraged to enter this very sketchy art show. Open to local & international artists including all takes on the theme.

Digital Catalogue & VR Video show available on Wordrevolt.com and @WordRevolt released following the reception on Saturday, 02.26.22

Important Dates

Entries Due: Monday, February 7th

Announcements: Tuesday, February 8th

Reception / Virtual Release Date: Saturday, February 26th

How will my work be exhibited? International works will be shown via projection at the brick & mortar gallery and online. All participants will be featured in Word Revolt VR, available online and projected on the wall of the physical gallery space. Small sculptural works are eligible to be projected in the gallery via holographic fan projector. To request this, send a video clip of your small 3D artwork rotating with a black background.

DO NOT ship artwork to the gallery. International applicants will be exhibited virtually only.

Word Revolt Art Gallery is a non-profit art gallery and studio that hosts monthly pop up exhibitions and events for local artists or those with a good cause. At WR it is free to apply, show, and sell artwork. Exhibiting artists keep & manage 100% of their show proceeds. WR provides the platform and curates the exhibition. All we ask in return is that participating artists contribute by promoting to spread the word and everyone comes together to make the exhibition special.

Online content will be available for 1-3 months from the exhibit opening reception serving as the launch date. Content will be available on wordrevolt.com, facebook.com/wordrevolt, @wordrevolt on Instagram and YouTube.

If accepted, to request a certificate of participation, please contact info@wordrevolt.com

How to Enter:

Due to limited space and the harmony of the exhibition, all work by all entrants must be submitted for approval to info@wordrevolt.com. Entry materials may be submitted via email as individual images/documents or with a link to a drive etc.

Entry Information/ Artist Checklist:

- Name, Short Bio / Artist Statement, Artist Website/Instagram/FB, YouTube etc. or other social media channels. Header of the email reads the title of the exhibition.
- Images: Enter up to 4 works to be considered, with one high quality image of each work of art named in the format: Title_ArtistName
- 3D: If you would like work considered for 3D projection send a short video of the object rotating with a black background
- Include the Size, Title, Artist, Media, and List Price (STAMP) for each work entered in the submission email. If you have a link to that work for sale or direct purchase, please include that link for us to share.
- All types of media will be considered, including new media. Submit video/audio using a link to download. All work must be the original creation of the artist applying. WR has the right to refuse work that does not meet these specifications or any other reason.

- All sales and delivery arrangements must go directly through the artist/buyer. Word Revolt Art Gallery is a unique non-profit gallery that does not handle art sales, any transactions or take sales proceeds from artists. We will do our best to connect you should a buyer be interested in your work. Donations to Word Revolt to support the work we do as artists for artists.

RULES OF THE GALLERY (International Applicants)

- By participating you agree that images of your art and of yourself, including any video, social media posts regarding the exhibition; interviews or application materials may be used for promotional purposes.

Word Revolt Art Gallery

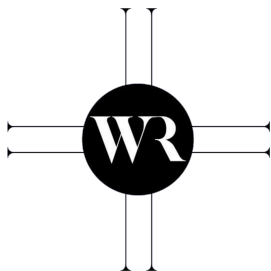

Acknowledgement: By entering this exhibition, you agree to participate and acknowledge that you understand the above conditions for exhibition at Word Revolt Art Gallery.

Word Revolt Art Gallery Inc.

Wordrevolt.com

1249 Mayport Road, Atlantic Beach, FL 32233

Info@wordrevolt.com

Word Revolt
Art Gallery Inc.